

Surge, Aquilo

Surge, Aquilo et veni, Auster;
perfla hortum meum,
et fluant aromata illius.

Veniat dilectus meus in hortum suum,
et comedat fructum pomorum suorum.

Veni in hortum meum, soror mea, sponsa:
messui myrrham meam cum aromatibus meis;
comedi favum cum melle meo;
bibi vinum meum cum lacte meo:

Comedite amici; bibite,
et inebriamini, carissimi.

Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south;
blow upon my garden,
that the spices thereof may flow out.

Let my beloved come into his garden,
and eat his pleasant fruits.

I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse:
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk:

Eat, O friends; drink,
yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.
